Affiliate Players Report

This reports show a record of the affiliate players who played in specific games. This can be filtered by affiliate type (defaults to all types) and division, and additionally by team as well. This summary shows the player's name, the game number(s) in which they played, the game date(s), the team which affiliated them, their regular home team, and whether this was a rep or non-rep affiliation. When a game is played after January 10 of the current season, the game record is shaded.
